

Relief Hook rail, Large

STRING FURNITURE

Our large Relief hook rail in powder-coated beige aluminium mirrors the 123 cm Relief dresser, creating a calm, continuous line on your wall. With generous width and a fine-structured finish, it offers sturdy hanging for bags, jackets, kitchen towels and everyday accessories while keeping a light, understated look. Use it in a larger hallway, wardrobe or shared space where several people need somewhere obvious to leave their things, or place it above a matching Relief dresser to tie the storage together. The slim depth keeps it discreet, so you gain practical hanging space without crowding the room, and the colour and profile sit naturally alongside the rest of the Relief series. Available in three different sizes reflecting the widths of the chests of drawers from Relief. The smallest is 41 cm, the medium-sized is 82 cm, and the largest is 123 cm.
