

Relief Hook rail, Small

STRING FURNITURE

Our small Relief hook rail in orange brings order and a clear focal point to compact spaces. At 41 cm wide, it offers practical hanging for everyday pieces such as bags, jackets, kitchen towels or accessories without overwhelming the room. The powder-coated aluminium with fine structure gives a durable, tactile finish that pairs naturally with the graphic fronts of the Relief dressers, especially the 41 cm models. Use it in a narrow hallway, bathroom or next to a dresser to keep surfaces clear and essentials within easy reach, or combine several rails to build a consistent look across your home. Wherever you place it, it adds both functional storage and a calm, coherent connection to the wider Relief series. Available in three different sizes reflecting the widths of the chests of drawers from Relief. The smallest is 41 cm, the medium-sized is 82 cm, and the largest is 123 cm.
