

Relief Hook rail, Medium

STRING FURNITURE

Our medium Relief hook rail in orange powder-coated aluminium adds both order and character to your space. At 82 cm wide, it offers generous hanging for everyday pieces like bags, jackets, kitchen towels or accessories, while keeping a slim, refined profile on the wall. The colour and fine-structured finish create a clear visual link to the Relief series, so it sits naturally above or beside a matching Relief dresser of the same width or combined with other Relief elements. Use it in an entryway for outerwear, in the kitchen for textiles and utensils, or in the bedroom for clothes and accessories where you need more hanging space and a calm, coherent look. Available in three different sizes reflecting the widths of the chests of drawers from Relief. The smallest is 41 cm, the medium-sized is 82 cm, and the largest is 123 cm.
